

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 11, 2018 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. BURNABY, British Columbia — Thousands of opponents of _____ filled the streets of metro Vancouver on Saturday in the biggest pushback yet against the $7.3 billion project. (MAIN)
2. Disney's "Black Panther" has passed the $_____ billion mark at the global box office. The studio said Saturday that the milestone is based on Disney's estimate of ticket sales. The announcement comes on the 26th day of release for the blockbuster. (MAIN)
3. "We thought, how can we bring that element of risk into your everyday environment?" said Leah Morris, who manages the early-years program at the school in Shoeburyness in southeast Britain. "We were looking at, OK, so we've got a sand pit, what can we add to the sand pit to make it more risky?"

Limited risks are increasingly cast by experts as an experience essential to childhood development, useful in building what two character traits?
(MAIN)

4. Nearly 120 dogs from three large breeds perfected over centuries in Europe and Asia to be gentle around sheep and children but vicious when confronting _____ were recently studied to see how they'd react to their old nemesis on a new continent. (MAIN)
5. Amazon says _____ percent of its Seattle employees take public transit, bike or walk to the office. _____ percent walk, the company says. (MAIN)
6. Richard Sherman will be playing for what NFL team? (SPORTS)
7. Eight months after they first proposed the idea, members of the Nordstrom family last week suggested a price of $_____ a share to buy back from the public the storied retailer founded and built by their forebears in Seattle. (BUSINESS)
8. What is cord-cutting? (Business)
9. What is a neobank? (Business)
10. New home-price highs: $_____ in Seattle, $_____ on the Eastside (BUSINESS)

News Break is posted to the Web on Monday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the print replica for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655. Copyright © 2018 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key: Sunday, March 11, 2018

1. Kinder Morgan's Trans Mountain oil-pipeline expansion (MAIN, A1)
2. $1 billion (MAIN, A2)
3. Resilience and grit (MAIN, A3)
4. Wolves (MAIN, A12)
5. 55%; 20% walk (MAIN, A16)
6. San Francisco 49ers (SPORTS, C1)
7. $50 (BUSINESS, D1)
8. Cord-cutting — dropping cable, phone company or satellite TV in favor of streaming live TV over the Internet. (BUSINESS, D1)
9. The most common definition of a neobank is an institution that provides some combination of checking accounts, savings accounts and debit cards via digital channels — primarily mobile — without any physical bank branches. (BUSINESS, D2)
10. $777,000 in Seattle, $950,000 on the Eastside (BUSINESS, D3)