

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, June 10, 2018 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Hundreds of immigrant-rights activists and protesters chanted and waved signs outside a federal prison in SeaTac following passionate speeches Saturday from Gov. Jay Inslee and other top officials condemning the Trump administration's practice of separating children from whom? (MAIN)
2. KFC says it is cooking up a new, healthier recipe, one that will be missing the restaurant chain's most famous ingredient. What ingredient will be missing? (MAIN)
3. Scientists have developed an inexpensive blood test to predict what two things for a pregnant woman? (MAIN)
4. JERUSALEM — An enigmatic sculpture of a king's head dating back nearly 3,000 years has set off a modern-day mystery caper as scholars try to figure out whose face it depicts. Who do they think this person could be? (MAIN)
5. Earlier this year, deliberations over the tax of $275 per employee, per year on large companies were mostly limited to City Hall, as social-justice activists and City Council members sought more money for what two social services? (NW SUNDAY)
6. BECU, one of the nation's largest credit unions, has agreed to make its website and mobile-banking app accessible to _____ users after complaints from a national organization and local credit-union members. (BUSINESS)
7. What does ha'api'i mean? (JOBS)
8. The mere name of the exhibition, "Double Exposure," holds the contradiction of Curtis and what he left in his wake — and the technology of photography itself. It's all about the _____ and the negative. (NW ARTS & LIFE)
9. What is The Collective? (NW ARTS & LIFE)
10. In the fitness industry, high-intensity interval training, or HIIT it becoming very popular. What does it involve? (NW ARTS & LIFE)

News Break is posted to the Web on Monday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the print replica for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655. Copyright © 2018 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key: Sunday, June 10, 2018

1. Their asylum-seeking parents. (MAIN, A1)
2. Chicken. The company famous for its “finger lickin’ ” Southern fried chicken said last week that it was testing chicken like “vegetarian options” in Britain with its signature blend of herbs and spices.(MAIN, A14)
3. Due date and possibly identify women who are at risk of giving birth prematurely. (MAIN, A15)
4. Because carbon-14 dating cannot give a more exact date for the statue’s creation other than sometime in the ninth century, the field of potential candidates is large. Yahalom-Mack posited it could be kings Ben Hadad or Hazael of Damascus, Ahab or Jehu of Israel, or Ithobaal of Tyre, all characters appearing in the biblical narrative.

“We’re only guessing here, it’s like a game,” she said. “It’s like a hello from the past, but we don’t know anything else about it.” (MAIN, A18)

5. Low-income housing and homeless services (NW SUNDAY, B2)
6. Blind; The agreement came after the National Federation of the Blind (NFB), its Washington affiliate and three blind individuals warned they might sue under the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Washington State Law Against Discrimination, said Eve Hill, an attorney for Baltimore-based law firm Brown, Goldstein & Levy. (BUSINESS, D1)
7. In the Tahitian language it means both “to teach” and “to learn.” (JOBS, F1)
8. Positive/negative (NW ARTS & LIFE, G2)
9. One of South Lake Union’s newest restaurants is one you can’t go to — it’s inside a new private club custom-concept for New Seattle, including a climbing wall and a device-free hammock zone. (NW ARTS & LIFE, G7)
10. HIIT involves very short, very strenuous bursts of exercise interspersed with periods of rest — many are intimidated to try such workouts. (NW ARTS & LIFE, G8)