

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, June 17, 2018 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. A slew of technical problems with the three most advanced models of jet aircraft engines is widely disrupting operations at airlines, bleeding cash from the engine makers and grounding significant numbers of _____ and _____ jets. (MAIN)
2. U.S. companies have spent years trying to become more welcoming to women. They have rolled out generous parental-leave policies, designed cushy lactation rooms and plowed millions of dollars into programs aimed at retaining mothers. But these advances haven't changed one simple fact-what is it? (MAIN).
3. As the Trump administration imposes tariffs on allies and rivals alike, provoking broad retaliation, global commerce is suffering disruption, flashing signs of strains that could hamper what? (MAIN)
4. The newly opened space at Monticello, Thomas Jefferson's palatial mountaintop plantation, is presented as the living quarters of Sally Hemings, an enslaved woman who bore some of the founding father's children. But it is more than an exhibit. It's the culmination of a 25-year effort to deal with the reality of slavery in the home of one of liberty's most eloquent champions. The public opening deals a final blow to two centuries of what? (MAIN)
5. For the second time in barely more than a year, an Indonesian villager has been swallowed whole by a _____. (MAIN)
6. Being laid to rest in Westminster Abbey is perhaps the greatest posthumous honor that can be given to any Briton, and when Stephen Hawking's ashes were interred there Friday, they were placed between the remains of _____ and _____, two of the giants of science. (MAIN)
7. Autonomous shuttle pilot projects are sprouting in myriad locations across the country, gauging people's reactions and trying to increase their comfort with what? (NW SUNDAY)
8. The emerging market for smart speakers, and the voice activated software that makes them tick, is what? (BUSINESS)
9. The Center for Mindful Eating (TCME), which offers a wealth of resources at thecenterformindfuleating.org, defines mindful eating as what (4) things? (NW ARTS & LIFE)
10. Lifting weights might also lift _____, according to an important new review of dozens of studies about strength training and depression. It finds that resistance exercise often substantially reduces people's gloom, no matter how melancholy they feel at first, or how often — or seldom — they actually get to the gym and lift. (NW ARTS & LIFE)
