

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 9, 2018 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Sound Transit is betting $_____ million that people will flock to freeway buses at a Kirkland site where nobody catches transit now. (MAIN)
2. Engineers set to sea Saturday to deploy a trash-collection device to corral plastic litter floating between California and Hawaii in an attempt to clean up what? (MAIN)
3. TODAY IN HISTORY: The second Continental Congress made the term "United States" official, replacing "United Colonies." What year did this take place? (MAIN)
4. Labor Day has passed, which in an election year means what? (MAIN)
5. "We're in a challenging moment because, when you look at the arc of American history, there's always been a push and pull between those who want to go forward and those who want to look back, between those who want to divide and those are seeking to bring people together, between those who promote the politics of hope and those who exploit the politics of fear," he said. What former president was campaigning in CA this weekend and said this quote? (MAIN)
6. President Donald Trump on Saturday took aim at Apple after the tech giant said the White House's proposed tariffs on China could result in price increases on popular consumer devices such as AirPods, the company's wireless headphones and the Apple Watch. What was President Trump's response to Apple via tweet? (MAIN)
7. Teachers and school staff in Seattle voted overwhelmingly late Saturday afternoon to approve a new contract between their union and Seattle Public Schools. What does the one-year contract give the 6,000 members of the Seattle Education Association, which represents classroom teachers, substitutes, paraprofessionals and office professionals? (NW SUNDAY)
8. How many billions of pounds of clothes will be thrown away in 2019, according to the Council of Textile Recycling? (BUSINESS)
9. Inmates from the Mission Creek Corrections Center for Women pull weeds in a greenhouse, which they helped build, last month. More than one of the women has relied on a food bank herself in the past. None of them have any previous gardening experience. And every single one uses the word "amazing" to describe what program? (The Mix)
10. "We have agricultural land, agricultural history and agricultural values," said chocolate farmer Will Lydgate, whose relatives have lived on Kauai since the 1800s. "We love selling what we grow to visitors." What is Hawaii's state motto? (The Mix)

News Break is posted to the Web on Monday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the print replica for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655. Copyright © 2018 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key: Sunday, September 9, 2018

1. $300 million (MAIN, A1)
2. The world's largest garbage patch in the heart of the Pacific Ocean. (MAIN, A1)
3. 1776 (MAIN, A2)
4. Americans are about to become awash in polls tapping the mood of voters as they decide which candidate to support in 435 congressional districts and dozens of U.S. Senate and governor's elections Nov. 6. (MAIN, A3)
5. Former President Barack Obama (MAIN, A4)
6. In a tweet, Trump said there's an "easy solution" to Apple's potential woes that also came with a tax break: "Make your products in the United States instead of China. Start building new plants now. Exciting!" (MAIN, A13)
7. A 10.5 percent pay hike and for the first time provides them with five days of paid parental leave. (NW SUNDAY, B1)
8. 35 billion (BUSINESS, D1)
9. The GRACE Garden Project (The Mix, E1)
10. "The life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness." (The Mix, E8)