News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday’s News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, October 21, 2018 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Thousands of pro-independence demonstrators gathered in Taiwan’s capital Saturday to express their disapproval with China’s stance toward what? (MAIN)
2. TODAY IN HISTORY: Thomas Edison perfected a workable electric light at his laboratory in Menlo Park, New Jersey. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
3. TODAY IN HISTORY: The Seattle World’s Fair closed after six months and nearly 10 million visitors. (President John F. Kennedy, scheduled to attend the closing ceremony, canceled because of what was described as a “head cold;” the actual reason turned out to be the Cuban missile crisis.) What year did this take place? (MAIN)
4. Thousands of Britons took to the streets of Central London on Saturday for a “People’s Vote” march, demanding that the government call a new referendum on Britain’s exit from the __________________________. (MAIN)
5. Winning Mexico’s presidency this summer did not slow down Andrés Manuel López Obrador: Three months into his transition, he is traveling across the country to thank voters, replay his campaign promises and pledge, “I will not fail you.” López Obrador was elected by a landslide in July on a mandate to battle what three main things? (MAIN)
6. It’s the greatest need after a hurricane, and sometimes the hardest one to fulfill: __________________________. More than a week after Hurricane Michael smashed into the Florida Panhandle on a path of destruction that led all the way to the Georgia border, more than 100,000 Florida customers were still without power, according to the state Department of Emergency Management website. (MAIN)
7. Women with an aggressive type of breast cancer lived longer if they received __________________________ plus chemotherapy, rather than chemo alone, a major study has found. (MAIN)
8. Lottery players will have a chance at winning an estimated $_____ billion jackpot in Tuesday night’s Mega Millions drawing. That total would tie for the largest lottery jackpot in U.S. history and could grow before the next drawing. (MAIN)
9. Corpse flowers live up to their name, giving off an overpowering stench to attract pollinators. The one at Amazon’s The Spheres, named Morticia by staff, bloomed Friday night and may not bloom again for ___ to ___ years. (NW SUNDAY)
10. Approximately one in five adults will experience mental illness in any given year, but only half of them will get treatment. Mental health impacts every aspect of our lives, and everyone can benefit from counseling — not just those who suffer from severe, chronic mental illness. As Farmer points out, ____________ is a prime risk factor for a number of physical illnesses. (THE MIX)

News Break is posted to the Web on Monday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the print replica for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655. Copyright © 2018 The Seattle Times Company
News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key: Sunday, October 21, 2018

1. Their island. China cut off contact with Taiwanese President Tsai Ing-wen’s government shortly after her inauguration in 2016 (MAIN, A2)
2. 1879 (MAIN, A2)
3. 1962 (MAIN, A2)
4. European Union (MAIN, A7)
5. Corruption, reduce soaring violence and tackle the country’s entrenched inequality. Now those promises are colliding against a reality too complex to be reduced to a stump speech. (MAIN, A8)
6. Electricity (MAIN, A10)
7. Immunotherapy (MAIN, A12)
8. $1.6 billion jackpot (MAIN, A14)
9. 7-10 years (NW SUNDAY, B2)
10. Stress (THE MIX, E10)