

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, October 7, 2018 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Banksy's "Girl with Balloon" was destroyed by a remote-control _____ at Sotheby's. The artwork had just been sold for $1.4 million at auction. (MAIN)
2. But with a new policy that went into effect last week, the airline has left the possibility open. _____ have joined dogs and cats as one of the three animals expressly allowed on board as service animals, which are trained to assist someone with a disability. (MAIN)
3. Seattle voters will soon decide whether doubling the city government's investment in public education is worth what? (NW SUNDAY)
4. This fall, while the UW is trying to help the homeless people who are around it, it's also struggling with a regional homelessness crisis that drifts onto the open campus. The HUB is finalizing rules that ban what things? (NW SUNDAY)
5. Green River College in Auburn is facing a $574,500 fine from the U.S. Department of Education for inaccurately tracking what? (NW SUNDAY)
6. Some Oregon lawmakers and winery owners scrambled last week to help a dozen vineyard owners who face the prospect of tons of grapes withering on the vine after a California company abruptly canceled contracts to buy the grapes over fears they are tainted by what? (NW SUNDAY)
7. Flashback to fall 2008, and you'll remember the free-fall the U.S. economy experienced. At the heart of it was the collapse of the _____ market. (BUSINESS)
8. The increased U.S. defense budget, record orders for commercial aircraft and the launch of new, cutting-edge programs have aerospace and defense companies scrambling to do what? (BUSINESS)
9. Amazon.com is boosting its minimum wage for all U.S. workers to $_____, and CEO Jeff Bezos said he'll push for the federally mandated minimum wage to be raised, too. (BUSINESS)
10. Nabisco made headlines in August when the company announced animal crackers would be "set free" from the cages depicted in its packaging for the past 100 years. The move was prompted by what? (THE MIX)

News Break is posted to the Web on Monday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the print replica for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655. Copyright © 2018 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key: Sunday, October 7, 2018

1. Shredder (MAIN, A2)
2. Miniature horses (MAIN, A13)
3. A property-tax hike (NW SUNDAY, B1)
4. Lying down and sprawling out on couches, sleeping for more than 30 minutes, using the restroom for cutting hair or bathing, and panhandling. (NW SUNDAY, B1)
5. Crime statistics, as well as its failure to publish fire and safety reports and develop a drug prevention program. (NW SUNDAY, B2)
6. Wildfire smoke (NW SUNDAY, B2)
7. Housing (BUSINESS, D1)
8. Hire engineers and other skilled workers. (BUSINESS, D1)
9. $15 (BUSINESS, D2)
10. PETA and the general consensus that the circus — and the torture endured by circus animals over years of performing — was not a good look for branding. (THE MIX, E2)