

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 10, 2019 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Even before the Alaskan Way Viaduct finally comes down, the _____ to cash in on soaring property values in the area is in full swing. (MAIN)
2. Performers in front of the Historical Museum in Manezhnaya Square near the Kremlin in Moscow on Saturday celebrate Maslenitsa. What is it? (MAIN)
3. Who was the first person to go into space? What year did this take place? What country? (MAIN)
4. Today in History: Alexander Graham Bell's assistant, Thomas Watson, heard Bell say over his experimental telephone: "Mr. Watson — come here — I want to see you" from the next room of Bell's Boston laboratory. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
5. President Donald Trump was just doing what he could to raise spirits when he signed _____ at an Alabama church for survivors of a tornado outbreak, many religious leaders say, though some are offended and others say he could have handled it differently. (MAIN)
6. KIEV, Ukraine — In the second season of the Ukrainian hit TV show "Servant of the People," comedian Volodymyr Zelensky plays a schoolteacher turned presidential candidate who shoots to the top of the polls amid voter disgust with the political establishment. What is Zelensky now running for in real life? (MAIN)
7. TOKYO — A _____-year-old Japanese woman who loves playing the board game Othello was honored Saturday as the world's oldest living person by Guinness World Records. (MAIN)
8. In the northern United States and Canada, areas that once were depressed under the tremendous weight of a massive ice sheet are springing back up while others are sinking. The Chicago area and parts of southern Lake Michigan, where glaciers disappeared 10,000 years ago, are sinking. At what rate per century? (MAIN)
9. U.S. wildlife officials plan to lift protections for _____ across the Lower 48 states, reigniting the legal battle over a predator that's run into conflicts with farmers and ranchers after rebounding in some regions, an official told The Associated Press. (NW SUNDAY)
10. OLYMPIA — As daylight saving time takes effect in most of the U.S. this weekend, the Washington House passed a measure Saturday that would make those later sunsets _____ in the state all year — if Congress allows it.

The measure passed 89-7 and now heads to the Senate, which has its own bill. The vote comes as more than two dozen states consider measures to avoid the twice-yearly clock change. (NW SUNDAY)

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key: Sunday, March 10, 2019

1. Gold Rush (MAIN, A1)
2. A Slavic folk holiday that originally marked the end of winter and now takes place the week before Russian Orthodox Lent. (MAIN, A2)
3. Yuri Gagarin, the first person to go into space, was from Russia. Gagarin spent 108 minutes in space on April 12, 1961. (MAIN, A2)
4. 1876 (MAIN, A2)
5. Bibles (MAIN, A4)
6. President (MAIN, A6)
7. 116 year old (MAIN, A12)
8. About 4 to 8 inches each century. (MAIN, A16)
9. Gray wolves (NW SUNDAY, B2)
10. Permanent (NW SUNDAY, B6)

News Break is posted to the Web on Monday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the print replica for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655. Copyright © 2019 The Seattle Times Company