

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 13, 2020 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Shrouded by the darkest clouds in its history from the unprecedented pandemic-driven collapse of the airliner business, Boeing has one glimmer of silver lining left for 2020. What is it? (MAIN)
2. When was the last time the states of Washington and Oregon voted for a Republican President? (MAIN)
3. Tesla unveiled its _____ model in 2017 and is expecting deliveries to begin in 2021. (MAIN)
4. Today in History: The Congress of the Confederation authorized the first national election and declared New York City the temporary national capital. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
5. Coronavirus infections in the Dakotas are growing faster than anywhere else in the nation, fueling debates over what two things? (MAIN)
6. What three pharmaceutical companies are vying for a coronavirus vaccine? (MAIN)
7. Big Ten university presidents will meet Sunday to hear a presentation about playing a fall football season after all-maybe as soon as late October-amid pressure from whom, to kick off? (SPORTS)
8. But six months into the coronavirus pandemic and with not return to the office in sight, many employers are realizing that working remotely through a global health crisis requires more than helping employees pay for a comfy office chair. They are investing in intangibles that can help with their mental wellness. What are some examples that were given? (BUSINESS)
9. Dr. Anthony Fauci (our country's top infectious disease specialist) says, "We've got to break that custom, because as a matter of fact that is really one of the major ways you can transmit a respiratory-borne illness." What is he referring to? (JOBS)
10. Fresh fruits like _____ are great anti-inflammatory treats. (THE MIX)