

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, November 15, 2020 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Gov. Jay Inslee will announce sweeping new restrictions Sunday to curb surging _____ cases, including a ban on both indoor social gatherings and indoor service at restaurants and bars, closures of businesses such as gyms, and sharp occupancy limits for retailers and others. (MAIN)
2. President-elect Joe Biden is expected to select a _____ to head the Pentagon for the first time, shattering one of the few remaining barriers to women in the department and the presidential Cabinet. (MAIN)
3. TODAY IN HISTORY: The Second Continental Congress approved the Articles of Confederation. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
4. TODAY IN HISTORY: The naval Battle of Guadalcanal ended with a decisive U.S. victory over Japanese forces. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
5. What is yakult? (MAIN)
6. The Trump administration unveiled a new U.S. citizenship test. What are some of the changes? (MAIN)
7. It was cause for celebration last week when Pfizer announced that an early analysis showed its vaccine candidate was more than 90% effective. Now the drug maker, the government and the public health community face a new challenge. What is it? (BUSINESS)
8. Parents who've lost their jobs during the pandemic are driving a surge of litigation, alleging their employers discriminated against them for doing what? (BUSINESS)
9. The convenience of working from home has a downside for many employees: It can feel quite _____. (JOBS)
10. Thanksgiving is coming up, and in normal years, that typically means feasts and large gatherings with friends and family. But due to the pandemic, the holiday is going to look a lot different this year. Here's what health officials are suggesting as we approach the holiday season, and how you can adapt your meal preparations for a smaller crowd. What are a few of the suggestions to keep safe? (THE MIX)