News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday’s News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, November 22, 2020 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. A U.S.-European satellite designed to extend a decades-long measurement of__________________________ was launched into Earth orbit from California on Saturday. A SpaceX Falcon 9 rocket carrying the satellite blasted off from Vandenberg Air Force Base and arced southward over the Pacific Ocean. (MAIN)

2. TODAY IN HISTORY: John F. Kennedy, the 35th president of the United States, was shot to death during a motorcade in Dallas; Texas Gov. John Connally, riding in the same car as Kennedy, was seriously wounded; suspected gunman Lee Harvey Oswald was arrested. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson was sworn in as president. What year did this happen? (MAIN)

3. More than ___ million people flew through U.S. domestic airports on Friday, the second highest daily total since the coronavirus pandemic hit last spring, even as officials warn against travel around the Thanksgiving holiday. (MAIN)

4. Weather forecasters nationwide strive to warn communities in advance of every tornado that touches down, each flash flood that is about to occur and each winter weather event. One of the most reliable and costly tools at a meteorologist’s disposal for issuing watches and warnings is a network of 159__________________________ across the country that provides detailed views inside storms. Radar helps meteorologists determine precipitation type and intensity, how much rain or snow has fallen, wind direction and speed at which precipitation is moving within a storm. (MAIN)

5. Skeletal remains of what are believed to have been a rich man and his male slave attempting to escape death after the eruption of Mount Vesuvius nearly ______ years ago have been discovered in Pompeii, officials at the archaeological park in Italy said Saturday. (MAIN)

6. Two years ago, Seattle voters overwhelmingly approved an education levy giving the city’s public high school graduates what? (NW)

7. A new report is sounding the alarm on how far Washington’s education system is from achieving what? (NW)

8. A West Seattle company, FriendlyFace, wants to bring back ______________ in public with selfie-based masks and gaiters. (NW)

9. As many as _____ million Americans plan to relocate to a new city as working from home becomes more popular, according to a new survey from online freelance company Upwork. (BUSINESS)

10. I cannot emphasize enough how hard it is for people to stay organized when there is a never ending stream of stuff coming into their house. Shopping makes people happy. New gadgets, clothes and decor bring people joy, at least in the short term. But there is a finite amount of space in our homes, and even fancy shelves that maximize our storage spaces fill up quickly. So, yes, shop for items you need and will enjoy, but don’t resort to shopping as a pastime. The serotonin released in your brain when something new arrives will eventually turn to anxiety and stress when what happens? (AT HOME IN THE NW)